Entered House and Went to Bed.

A negro who gave his name as Joseph Anderson was arrested about four o'clock this morning by Officers Allen and Young under peculiar circumstances. Anderson is from Washington and had attended a ball at the colored Odd Fellows' Hall last night. About four o'clock this morning he went to Mr. Thomas Coffin's residence, on Duke street, near Fayette, opened the door, entered and proceeded to a room in the upper story where he took off all but his underclothes and covered himself up in bed. The front door was not locked from the fact that Mr. Coffin and his brother, who are railroad men, were to go out on trains at an early hour. Some of the female members of the family were up and the darkey entered the room where they were employed and made no attempt to conceal his presence in the house. The policemen were informed of the procedure and they repaired to the room pre-empted by Anderson and pulled him out of bed. He was brought before the Mayor this morning when in extenuation of his conduct he said he had made a mistake in the house and that he had been drinking at the time. The Mayor sent him on to the grand jury. Anderson is believed to be the same individual who one Sunday evening several years ago appeared at the Fayette street depot and furnished a knife. It was supposed at the time that he committed the act in order to get in jail to be fed by the city.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late James B. Penn, son of Mr. B. F. Penn, of this city, who died at his home in Washington Saturday afternoon, took place from his late residence in Washington this morning. The remains were taken to St. Joseph's Church, where a mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul. The funeral was attended by McKinley Council, National Union, and a delegation of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum.

The remains of the late Alfred G. Appich, who died in Washington early Sunday morning, were brought to this city this afternoon and interred. The funeral services were held in Washington.

The funeral of the late Mary E. Barker, who died in Washington Saturday, took place this afternoon from the residence of Mr. Thomas Chaucery, 808 Duke street. Rev. Dr. Hunt officiated.

Children's Home Society.

A meeting of the local advisory board of the Children's Home Society of Virginia was held last night in the Business Men's League rooms. Miss Virginia Burke, president of the board, presided, and read her report for the past year which showed satisfactory progress in the work of the organization. Three children had been sent from this city during the year. They now have comfortable homes and are well and happy. The contributions have been liberal and judiciously expended. Mr. N. S. Greenaway was elected secretary in place of Miss Lulu Rathbone, who tendered her resignation.

Conductor Seriously Hurt.

Conductor George B. Lunsden, of the Southern Railway, was seriously injured at Burke's station at an early hour this morning. He had charge of a work train which had side-tracked for the purpose of allowing an extra freight train to pass, and while looking forward from a car on which he was standing he was struck on the head by a piece of lumber which was protruding from the passing freight train. His jawbone was broken, several teeth knocked out and his head terribly cut. The injured man was brought to this city where he was attended by Dr. O'Brien.

The Weather.

The weather is murky and especially conducive to the contraction of colds. About every other person one encounters is suffering from catarrhal troubles or influenza in one form or another. The temperature today has been mild, the skies obscured and a fog hung over the river this morning. The streets are wet from melting snow and altogether meteorological conditions have been gloomy and cheerless.

Wedding.

Miss Minnie Lemuel Butler and Mr. Samuel Harrington were married at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of Mr. Denis Cronin, 312 south Patrick street, by Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church. The maid of honor was Miss Maggie Ahern, and the groom was attended by Mr. J. William Stone as best man. A reception followed the ceremony. The groom is a well-known engineer on the Southern Railway.

Ory of Murder.

At an early hour this morning Officers Allen and Young, who were some distance away, saw two men and a woman standing on the corner of Duke and Alfred streets. They seemed to be engaged in animated conversation, during which the woman shrieked "murder!" The officers hastened to the trio, but before they reached them the parties stampeded and vanished out of sight. The officers will endeavor to identify them.

Over a Century Old.

The Alexandria (Va.) Gazette recently closed its one hundred and third recorded volume, although the paper was published about twenty years in the eighteenth century, before regular files of the paper were kept. The Gazette has had an eventful career, its establishment having been seized by the federal authorities during the war between the States. The Gazette has been in the hands of one family for three generations and has made decided progress in its business department during recent years. —[American Press.]

County Court.

[Judge J. M. Love presiding.] Com. vs. Kate Jackson; indicted for the larceny of $40 from Seymour Henderson; jury and case in progress.

Farmers' Club Notes.

[Reported for the Alexandria Gazette.] The Woodlawn Farmers' Club met on January 17th at Epworth, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Roberts, and was called to order by Mr. F. H. Wilkinson, president.

The November and December meetings were not well attended, and as the regular secretary was not at either of these meetings, he had no report.

No matters were regularly presented to the club for consideration by the committee, the meeting was quite informal and while there was no business transacted, it was quite a pleasant social occasion, and when the hostess announced supper the president appointed Messrs. E. Walton and A. L. Lukens a committee on subjects for discussion at the next meeting.

The club then adjourned to meet at "Vernondale," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gillingham on the 7th of February.

Rev. J. W. Ware, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church at Ashland, has decided to accept a call to the Episcopal Church at Culpeper.

Animal Sense Perceptions.

In the course of an article on animal sense perceptions, in which special attention is directed to nauseous or offensive odors as a means of protection, the editor of the Zoologist warns his readers against regarding animal etiology too much from the human standpoint. Because animals cannot speak we must not assume that they have no modes of communication; it is by no means certain that the ordinary explanation of "warning colors" is the true one, while the evil smell of the durian fruit does not render it distasteful either to the orang or to man himself.

Curiosity.

"What did that lady have the screen across one part of the room for, ma?" asked little Harry, who had been making a call with his mother.

"I suppose she had something there she didn't want seen," replied his mother.

"And was that the reason, ma, that when you thought she wasn't looking you peeped behind it?"

Complimentary.

"Gentlemen," said a judge addressing the jury in a recent Irish case reported in Law Notes, "you have heard the evidence. The indictment says the prisoner was arrested for stealing a pig. The offense seems to be becoming a common one. The time has come when it must be put a stop to; otherwise, gentlemen, none of you will be safe."
